Would you like an opportunity to meet your neighbors, network, learn about new topics and give back to your community? Then consider joining the Upper Arlington Women's Club (UAWC).

UAWC is a non-profit organization. Money raised through membership dues is used to provide humanitarian award opportunities for qualifying high school students who reside in Upper Arlington. The greater the membership, the greater the number of awards can be awarded. As a member you can choose to be as active as your time allows.

The UAWC is a civic organization for area women founded to provide humanitarian awards and a forum to learn about issues and opportunities of interest from experts and one another. Meetings are held quarterly. Each meeting features a brief presentation by a speaker on topics ranging from fashion, plastic surgery, OSU football, gardening, local newsmakers, women's issues, etc....

Annual dues are $45. Any woman resident or supporter of Upper Arlington is eligible for membership. To join this exciting organization, please return the completed registration form and a $45 check (payable to UAWC) in the enclosed envelope to:

Upper Arlington Women's Club
